Terms of Consent

A high standard of conduct will be expected from Children's Chorus of Nova Scotia participants at all times. Participants may not leave the grounds of the rehearsal or performance facilities during designated rehearsal and performance times without the express consent of the on-site representative of the NSCF. Any participant who departs the grounds without permission or who behaves in a manner that an NSCF representative or presenter, acting reasonably, considers unacceptable behaviour will be dealt with in a suitable and respectful manner and may be sent home at the participant's expense with no refund of the registration fee.

NSCF and its representatives will use reasonable efforts to supervise and provide for the well-being of participants. However, neither NSCF nor any of its respective directors, executive, employees, staff, instructors, supervisors, clinicians, or technicians shall be liable for any personal injury to a participant or damage to a participant's property of any nature however caused or arising.

Photographs, recordings, videotapes and the like may be made of participants in the Children's Chorus of Nova Scotia and may be used in slide shows, videos, brochures, and other materials advertising, promoting, or raising funds for the NSCF. No names will be attached to these photos at any time.

In consideration of accepting the participant's registration, the undersigned consents and agrees to these terms of participation in Children's Chorus of Nova Scotia and forever releases the NSCF and its respective directors, executive, employees, staff, instructors, supervisors, clinicians, and technicians and the Government of Nova Scotia and the City of Halifax, their respective servants, agents, or employees from any and all claims, actions, damages, or causes of action arising in any way out of participation in Children's Chorus of Nova Scotia.

Under the Freedom of Information and Protection and Privacy Act, we are required to request your permission to print the name of your child in the concert program on the list of choristers.
